

Saturday and Sunday==World's House and Home Days.

EXTRA.

EIGHT PAGES.

AJAX TO THE FORE

He Takes the Swift Stakes at Sheepshead, with Sport Second.

WIRES ALL CUT OUT AGAIN.

Coney Island Jockey Club Takes Up the Fight on the Guttenburg Books.

RACE TRACK, SHEEPSHEAD BAY, June 19.—The Coney Island Jockey Club to-day cut out the wires of the Western Union Telegraph Company.

The Executive Committee this afternoon decided to wage war against the Guttenburg Association and the pool-rooms at Port Lee.

The Telegraph Company established offices for the newspaper correspondents in a small hotel outside the track, but all regular business had to go to Sheepshead village.

The attendance to-day was quite large for a Monday. The programme was most excellent and promised sport of a rare kind.

The track was in superb condition, the weather very warm. The only cool spot was beneath the south end of the grand stand, and there the talent gathered.

The opening event was a dash of five and a half furlongs, and a good class of sprinters were entered. The talent made Correction a hot favorite and played her with wonderful confidence. They argued that she always liked the Futurity course and would show a decided improvement.

The public played Stonewall, who has always run consistently, and could be relied upon sure, game and true.

Correction won, nevertheless, and those who bet on Stonewall were not all satisfied with Lambie's riding. The shortest way home on the Futurity course is on the inner rail, but Lambie kept Stonewall on the extreme outside, and then, when he swerved over, Lambie had hard work to keep him off the rail.

White Rose beat Stonewall handsily for the place.

The Executive Committee of the Coney Island Jockey Club this afternoon held a meeting to consider the outrageous assault made by Trainer Walden on Reporter R. F. Mayhew. The Committee passed a resolution that Walden be fined $500.

What will be done with Walden's contribution may be determined from the fact that the Committee adopted another resolution presenting the Volunteer Fire Department with $500 for their services during a fire a few nights ago. The second race was a dash of five and a half furlongs, and the favorite, Correction, won by a wide margin. The third race, a dash of five and a half furlongs, was won by White Rose, who beat Stonewall handsily. Time, 1:06.

Mutuels paid: Straight, $24.25; place, $6.25. White Rose paid $24.25.

SECOND RACE.
Starters: Weight, Jockey, Start, Half, Fin.
Correction.....107. J. Fox.....1 1/2 1
White Rose.....107. J. Fox.....2 1/2 2
Stonewall.....107. J. Fox.....3 1/2 3
Lambie.....107. J. Fox.....4 1/2 4
Violet.....107. J. Fox.....5 1/2 5
Laurie.....107. J. Fox.....6 1/2 6
Port Betting—Stonewall, 5 to 1; Correction, 2 to 1; White Rose, 3 to 1; Lambie, 4 to 1; Violet, 5 to 1; Laurie, 6 to 1; Port Betting, 10 to 1.

Correction and White Rose raced head and head to the bend, with Stonewall third on the extreme outside.

In the stretch, Correction took the lead and led to the finish, winning easily by a wide margin. Time, 1:06.

Mutuels paid: Straight, $24.25; place, $6.25. White Rose paid $24.25.

THIRD RACE.
Starters: Weight, Jockey, Start, Half, Fin.
Correction.....107. J. Fox.....1 1/2 1
White Rose.....107. J. Fox.....2 1/2 2
Stonewall.....107. J. Fox.....3 1/2 3
Lambie.....107. J. Fox.....4 1/2 4
Violet.....107. J. Fox.....5 1/2 5
Laurie.....107. J. Fox.....6 1/2 6
Port Betting—Stonewall, 5 to 1; Correction, 2 to 1; White Rose, 3 to 1; Lambie, 4 to 1; Violet, 5 to 1; Laurie, 6 to 1; Port Betting, 10 to 1.

Correction and White Rose raced head and head to the bend, with Stonewall third on the extreme outside.

In the stretch, Correction took the lead and led to the finish, winning easily by a wide margin. Time, 1:06.

Mutuels paid: Straight, $24.25; place, $6.25. White Rose paid $24.25.

FOURTH RACE.
Starters: Weight, Jockey, Start, Half, Fin.
Correction.....107. J. Fox.....1 1/2 1
White Rose.....107. J. Fox.....2 1/2 2
Stonewall.....107. J. Fox.....3 1/2 3
Lambie.....107. J. Fox.....4 1/2 4
Violet.....107. J. Fox.....5 1/2 5
Laurie.....107. J. Fox.....6 1/2 6
Port Betting—Stonewall, 5 to 1; Correction, 2 to 1; White Rose, 3 to 1; Lambie, 4 to 1; Violet, 5 to 1; Laurie, 6 to 1; Port Betting, 10 to 1.

Correction and White Rose raced head and head to the bend, with Stonewall third on the extreme outside.

In the stretch, Correction took the lead and led to the finish, winning easily by a wide margin. Time, 1:06.

Mutuels paid: Straight, $24.25; place, $6.25. White Rose paid $24.25.

FIFTH RACE.
Starters: Weight, Jockey, Start, Half, Fin.
Correction.....107. J. Fox.....1 1/2 1
White Rose.....107. J. Fox.....2 1/2 2
Stonewall.....107. J. Fox.....3 1/2 3
Lambie.....107. J. Fox.....4 1/2 4
Violet.....107. J. Fox.....5 1/2 5
Laurie.....107. J. Fox.....6 1/2 6
Port Betting—Stonewall, 5 to 1; Correction, 2 to 1; White Rose, 3 to 1; Lambie, 4 to 1; Violet, 5 to 1; Laurie, 6 to 1; Port Betting, 10 to 1.

Correction and White Rose raced head and head to the bend, with Stonewall third on the extreme outside.

In the stretch, Correction took the lead and led to the finish, winning easily by a wide margin. Time, 1:06.

Mutuels paid: Straight, $24.25; place, $6.25. White Rose paid $24.25.

SIXTH RACE.
Starters: Weight, Jockey, Start, Half, Fin.
Correction.....107. J. Fox.....1 1/2 1
White Rose.....107. J. Fox.....2 1/2 2
Stonewall.....107. J. Fox.....3 1/2 3
Lambie.....107. J. Fox.....4 1/2 4
Violet.....107. J. Fox.....5 1/2 5
Laurie.....107. J. Fox.....6 1/2 6
Port Betting—Stonewall, 5 to 1; Correction, 2 to 1; White Rose, 3 to 1; Lambie, 4 to 1; Violet, 5 to 1; Laurie, 6 to 1; Port Betting, 10 to 1.

Correction and White Rose raced head and head to the bend, with Stonewall third on the extreme outside.

In the stretch, Correction took the lead and led to the finish, winning easily by a wide margin. Time, 1:06.

Mutuels paid: Straight, $24.25; place, $6.25. White Rose paid $24.25.

SEVENTH RACE.
Starters: Weight, Jockey, Start, Half, Fin.
Correction.....107. J. Fox.....1 1/2 1
White Rose.....107. J. Fox.....2 1/2 2
Stonewall.....107. J. Fox.....3 1/2 3
Lambie.....107. J. Fox.....4 1/2 4
Violet.....107. J. Fox.....5 1/2 5
Laurie.....107. J. Fox.....6 1/2 6
Port Betting—Stonewall, 5 to 1; Correction, 2 to 1; White Rose, 3 to 1; Lambie, 4 to 1; Violet, 5 to 1; Laurie, 6 to 1; Port Betting, 10 to 1.

Correction and White Rose raced head and head to the bend, with Stonewall third on the extreme outside.

In the stretch, Correction took the lead and led to the finish, winning easily by a wide margin. Time, 1:06.

Mutuels paid: Straight, $24.25; place, $6.25. White Rose paid $24.25.

EIGHTH RACE.
Starters: Weight, Jockey, Start, Half, Fin.
Correction.....107. J. Fox.....1 1/2 1
White Rose.....107. J. Fox.....2 1/2 2
Stonewall.....107. J. Fox.....3 1/2 3
Lambie.....107. J. Fox.....4 1/2 4
Violet.....107. J. Fox.....5 1/2 5
Laurie.....107. J. Fox.....6 1/2 6
Port Betting—Stonewall, 5 to 1; Correction, 2 to 1; White Rose, 3 to 1; Lambie, 4 to 1; Violet, 5 to 1; Laurie, 6 to 1; Port Betting, 10 to 1.

Correction and White Rose raced head and head to the bend, with Stonewall third on the extreme outside.

In the stretch, Correction took the lead and led to the finish, winning easily by a wide margin. Time, 1:06.

Mutuels paid: Straight, $24.25; place, $6.25. White Rose paid $24.25.

SETTLED A GRUDGE.

Bookmaker Hart's Story of Outrage by Policemen.

A Party of Bluecoats Take Turns in Beating Him.

Justice Burke Advises Him to Prefer Charges.

Frank R. Hart, a bookmaker, of 451 East Eighty-fourth street, and Frank Osborne, who lives at 213 in the same street, were prisoners this morning in the Harlem Police Court.

Both men were badly used up, particularly Hart, who looked as if he had gone through a threshing machine. His head, face and neck were cut and bruised in such a shocking manner that not even hair a dozen yards of bandages were able to hide the wounds.

Disorderly conduct was the charge which Policeman Isaac Milhauser, of the East Eighty-fourth street station, preferred against them, and he had half a dozen brother officers in court or within an immediate vicinity, ready to corroborate him.

The prisoners, however, before they got through, put a different complexion on the story. They showed that Hart was clubbed, kicked, knocked down and beaten by several officers, apparently for no particular reason save to satisfy an old grudge. Osborne was introduced to the jury for threatening to appear in court as a witness for his friend.

According to Hart's story, his trouble with the police dates back two years ago, when he was arrested while sitting on his own stoop by Milhauser. He was discharged the next morning, and ever since, he says, he has been hounded by the entire force in that section.

He was perfectly soberly before he was taken to the station, and he was accompanied by Osborne, who entered Grimmer's restaurant at 110 West 125th street and Third avenue, where they had some food to eat. Afterward they walked over to the Hudson County Jockey Club last winter. Then the valets urged their employers to go on strike. It is reported that the jockeys now at Sheepshead Bay will also go on strike unless their valets are restored. This is hardly probable, as nearly all the valets are under contract, and could be brought into court and compelled to ride. The association should watch sharply for any signs of trouble and rule the offenders off.

The Guttenburg meeting will wind up on July 1. No opposition will be made and the jockeys will be back in the saddle. The management of the two associations are perfectly friendly. It is said that the Guttenburg will reopen and continue its career of opposition again on Sept. 1, and race until the law compels them to stop.

The programme at Sheepshead Bay for the remainder of the week is very interesting, and should furnish some rare sport. In addition to the Suburban Handicap, for two-year-olds, at five furlongs, will also be run, with Dobbin, Ham, and the other favorites, the St. Julian, Bowers, Pa. Juive, Nahma, Ontario, Gallie and Joe Ripley as probable favorites. The Derby will be run on Saturday, and the programme will be the interesting event of Tuesday.

Handicap and the Sheepshead Bay Handicap will make Thursday a gala day for the racing public. On Friday the Zephyr Stakes, for two-year-olds, will be run, as will the Grand Sprint, for three-year-olds, and the Sprint, for two-year-olds, will be the feature.

A year ago Archer became Vice-President of the company. He owns $60,000 stock, and the company is indebted to him on notes to the amount of $37,829.56. The business of the company during its three years of existence has been good. It has paid each year a dividend of $10 on every share of stock, and the balance sheet on February 1, 1893, showed a profit of $36,471.81.

The Cassell Publishing Company, organized three years ago, succeeded the Cassell Publishing Company (Limited), of which Dunham had been the manager.

Dunham became President of the new company. He held $100,000 of stock in it. He had to borrow money to get this interest in the company.

To accomplish this, it is charged, he fraudulently issued notes of the company for his personal obligations as they fell due.

In using the credit of the company, he kept the existence of the fraudulent notes a secret from all parties concerned except Walter H. Wagstaff, Treasurer of the company.

On June 15 Wagstaff informed Mr. Archer of the true state of affairs. The President had issued notes amounting to between $150,000 and $180,000, and the company was insolvent. Notes for $100,000 became due June 15 and were defaulted, and notes are about to fall due amounting to $150,000.

Since June 15 Mr. Dunham has not been seen by any of his business associates, and inquiries have been made at his residence.

He is said to have left the city.

TALK OF THE TUE.

The Board of Control at Sheepshead Bay Abolishes Jockeys' Valets.

GOOD PROGRAMME THIS WEEK

The Probable Starters and Jockeys for the American Derby.

The action of the Board of Control in abolishing jockeys' valets will meet the approval of almost every one. Jockeys' valets are at the best superfluous articles. They are of little use to the rider, save to keep his clothing in shape while on the track. They are very often, however, the middlemen between the bookmaker and the jockey, and a clever valet, with an unscrupulous turn of mind, often completely holds a jockey in his power. The Board of Control will furnish suitable attendants for the jockeys. This plan was adopted by the Hudson County Jockey Club last winter. Then the valets urged their employers to go on strike. It is reported that the jockeys now at Sheepshead Bay will also go on strike unless their valets are restored. This is hardly probable, as nearly all the valets are under contract, and could be brought into court and compelled to ride. The association should watch sharply for any signs of trouble and rule the offenders off.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., June 19.—The day of the arguments in the Borden case brought out a terrific jam at the court-house, and over an hour before the time of opening the doors were besieged by people, mostly ladies in holiday attire.

There were too few seats for the accommodation of a tenth part of the claimants, and there was much grumbling in consequence.

The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August, 1892, in Fall River, Mass., the murder of the young woman, Lizzie Borden, by her father and mother. The jury took their seats at 8.55, looking quite refreshed after a two days' rest, and a few minutes later Miss Borden came in, a bunch of pink in her hand and a contented smile on her face. Almost immediately on the court opening ex-Gov. Robinson began his argument. He said:

EX-GOV. ROBINSON SUMS UP.

"May it please Your Honors, Mr. Foreman and Gentlemen: One of the most dastardly and diabolical crimes ever committed in Massachusetts was perpetrated in August,